Before marrying Carl Antonson, she worked as a domestic and companion for the Armour family (meat packing industry) in Chicago. One in the United States, she decided to stay. Carl and Edla lived at 1236 Central Ave, Chicago for many years. The area had a large Scandinavian population and Edla was active in the local Vasa Lodge serving a term as president. MARRIAGE LICENSE--The marriage license #1735593 shows Paul A. Riedl of Oak Park and Ruth Sylvan of Chicago being married on June 27, 1942. Paul was 29 years old and Ruth was 23 years old at the time of marriage. They were married by Walter Shoemaker Pond, Episcopal Minister.

MARRIAGE NUPTIALS---On Saturday, June 27th, at high noon, in St. Barnabas' Chapel, Mr. Paul Riedl and Miss Ruth Sylvan were united in marriage at a ceremony witnessed by relatives of the contracting parties. Miss Kathryn Morgan was bridesmaid. Miss Jane Sylvan was her sister's maid of honor. Mr. Irvin Naviaux, the groom's cousin, served as best man. One of the loveliest features of this happy wedding occasion was the fact that the date was the thirty-six wedding anniversary of Wendell and Cora Riedl, the parents of the groom. And after the ceremony, they received with with the newly married couple at the reception. The decoration in the chapel were peonies and carnations in white and delphiniums and ferns. Morgan Merrifield, organist of St. Barnabas', played a program of music before and during and following the service. Miss Sylvan and Mr. Riedl met while they were students at Northwestern University. Her home is Fanwood, New Jersey. It was good to have a number of her relatives come to Chicago for the ceremony. Paul has grown up in this parish. He has been one of our most dependable acolytes. As I said to him, in my word of congratulations; in the nearly twenty years that I have known him intimately, I have never known anything but good about him, and I cannot imagine that his character will change now but when we have seen him accept the blessing of such a wonderful wife. We take advantage also of this opportunity to felicitate Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Riedl. All the years that I have known them, they have enjoyed a Christian home. They have been most faithful parishioners here at St. Barnabas'. Heretofore, they have had the joy of their only child. These are problematical days for parents and, particularly, those who have a son of military age. Paul had made his wedding arrangements prior to "Pearl Harbor." It seemed wise for him to go through with the marriage, as planned; irrespective as to what war duty may mean for his bride and himself. Upon return from their honeymoon, the Paul Riedl's will reside on Buena Ave. We were pleased that the bride's father could come on from his home in the East to give his older daughter in marriage. And we profoundly grateful to God that the groom's parents had so much pleasure out of the double portion of happiness on this wedding occasion. Mr. Paul Riedl's many friends, in our congregation, will want to join in my felicitations and good wishes.(written by Walter Shoemaker Pond)
